

Ketouvim (hagiographies) - Job

Chapter 23

- 23,1 {S} Then Job answered and said:
23,2 Even to-day is my complaint bitter; my hand is become heavy because of my groaning.
23,3 Oh that I knew where I might find Him, that I might come even to His seat! {S} Then Job answered and said:
23,4 I would order my cause before Him, and fill my mouth with arguments.
23,5 I would know the words which He would answer me, and understand what He would say unto me.
23,6 Would He contend with me in His great power? Nay; but He would give heed unto me.
23,7 There the upright might reason with Him; so should I be delivered for ever from my Judge.
23,8 Behold, I go forward, but He is not there, and backward, but I cannot perceive Him;
23,9 On the left hand, when He doth work, but I cannot behold Him, He turneth Himself to the right hand, but I cannot see Him.
23,10 For He knoweth the way that I take; when He hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
23,11 My foot hath held fast to His steps, His way have I kept, and turned not aside.
23,12 I have not gone back from the commandment of His lips; I have treasured up the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.
23,13 But He is at one with Himself, and who can turn Him? And what His soul desireth, even that He doeth.
23,14 For He will perform that which is appointed for me; and many such things are with Him.
23,15 Therefore am I affrighted at His presence; when I consider, I am afraid of Him.
23,16 Yea, God hath made my heart faint, and the Almighty hath affrighted me;
23,17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither did He cover the thick darkness from my face.
